DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 1, 3, and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over JP57186378A in view of JP405022941A and in view of JP358141689A and JP407111427A. JP57186378A sets forth a laser device wherein a laser beam is output by discharging current at a power pulse train with a higher frequency than the laser output response frequency, and indicates that the laser is controlled by thinning out or proportioning this power pulse train. Applicant has stated that "the laser output power... is densely or rarely controlled using the discharging electric power of each pulse being constant... the number of pulse trains is set based on the strength of laser output power." JP405022941A describes general well known cost reduction by pulse modulating in response to pulse width. JP358141689A and JP407111427A describe control for motor and volume control using pulse trains controlled in response to pulse width. Having a power source output a pulse train and being controlled by pulse width would have been obvious at the time applicant's invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art in order to reduce operation cost. The use of a power pulse train with a higher frequency than the laser output response frequency is the same as setting the switching cycle to be faster than the time constant of discharge power and laser output, and controlling the overall width of this thinned or proportioned pulse train would have been obvious at the time applicant's invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art in order to obtain output control having no dead band.

Claim 6 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over JP57186378A in view of JP405022941A and in view of JP358141689A and JP407111427A as applied to claim 1 above, and further in view of JP403011904A. JP403011904A describe reducing pulse width variations by switching modes. The use thereof with JP57186378A would have been obvious at the time applicant's invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art in order to reduce or prevent sudden laser output change.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
